The Orders of St John Care Trust is the 2nd largest not for profit care provider in the UK specialising in providing high quality, person centred care for older people, in care homes and extra care housing. As a charity we ensure that any revenue goes straight back into our homes meaning our residents and staff are well looked after.

Skirbeck Court Care Home is graded GOOD by CQC!

Skirbeck Court is set in mature gardens, within walking distance of Boston town centre with its twice weekly market and the famous St Botolph's Church (known as the 'Boston Stump'), visible from the grounds at night under its gothic style illumination.

Food is an important part of life at Skirbeck Court, and our professional cook and kitchen team pride themselves on serving a varied selection of freshly prepared meals and snacks. The delicious dishes, made using seasonal produce whenever possible, take account of any individual dietary requirements or preferences and are carefully balanced to ensure best nutritional value.

Our residents' well being and comfort is our prime focus. This means that responding to their individual needs is our top priority, so we are very proud to have 9.8 score on Carehome.com and overall we are classed as a GOOD Care Home.

Care charity and provider The Orders of St John Care Trust are respected in the care sector for a flexible range of care provision, making the most of voluntary sector contributions to help vulnerable adults achieve a more dignified lifestyle.
